This list is provided as a customer courtesy; however, McMinnville Water & Light does not endorse, refer, or recommend any individual tester on this list.

1. Testing costs vary, so it is recommended that you request quotes from several companies.
2. Visit the State of Oregon's Cross Connection/ Backflow Protection website for a public listing of all certified backflow assembly testers.
<http://public.health.oregon.gov/HealthyEnvironments/DrinkingWater/CrossConnection/Pages/publiclist.aspx>
3. Backflow Assembly Testers are required to obtain licensing through the Landscape Contractors Board (LCB) or the Construction Contractors Board (CCB) if they provide their services for a fee. LCB and CCB licenses have not been verified for individuals on this list. Call the LCB at (503) 986-6561 or the CCB at (503) 378-4621 to verify licensure.
4. Backflow testers who enter confined spaces must have current confined space training prior to entering the confined space.
