

Photography Policy

Reviewed May 2026

The McMinnville Public Library permits the use of photographic, digital imaging and film equipment so long as such use does not interfere with public's right to enjoyment of the Library for its intended purpose or violate the privacy rights of any user. The Library reserves the right to enforce any provision at its sole discretion.

- Visitors and library customers may take photographs in the library as remembrances of their visit.
- Library staff may terminate any photos being taken that appear to interfere with library business or that compromise safety and security.
- The privacy of users must not be violated. Please ask before you take a picture of a person that could be easily identified. Pictures of the backs of patrons are permissible.
- Under no circumstances will a person be able to modify or rearrange the property of the Library for photographic purposes without first obtaining specific permission from the Library staff.
- Anyone interested in filming or taking professional photos in the library should first contact the Library Director, Jenny Berg, at 503-435-5550.

The library reserves the right to photograph and videotape program participants. These photos and videos may be used in library publications, including local public cable, the library website, social software platforms, and other marketing materials. Notify library staff if you do not wish to be photographed.
